

Closing the loop

CUBEnet and the future of biomedical education

12-13 December 2013
 Australian Academy of Science
 Shine Dome, Canberra

Draft Program
Friday 13 November 2013
8.00 am	Registration and refreshments
8.50 am	Welcome and introductions Suzi Hewlett Office for Learning and Teaching
9.00 am	How can we help the Chief Scientist? Roslyn Prinsley Office of the Chief Scientist
9.25 am	How does Canberra work for biomedical education? Anna-Maria Arabia Questacon
9.50 am	The beauty of big biomed data Martin Kryzwinski BC Cancer Research Center
10.30 am	Morning tea, Jaeger Room
11.00 am	E-learning and Biomedical education in the 21st century Peter Goodyear University of Sydney
11.25 am	How to use e-analytics – when big is not so big Abelardo Pardo University of Sydney
11.50 am	Digital storytelling – the student voice Cyprien Lomas University of British Columbia
12.30 pm	Biomedical Science – getting the narrative right Ross Gibson Sydney College of the Arts
1.00 pm	Lunch, Jaeger Room
2.00 pm	Presentation of Biomedical TLOs, Assessment and Calibration Janet Macaulay Monash University Kathy Tangalakis Victoria University Philip McKinnon Australian Council for Educational Research Mark Freeman University of Sydney
3.00 pm	Reports from working groups and special projects (TBA)
4.00 pm	Close and drinks