

BEAN17

Biosciences Education Forum 2017 Program

BEAN

Biosciences Education
Australia Network

Monday, 11 December

8.00~ Registration/coffee at the Shine Dome

8.50 Opening and welcome remarks – Phil Poronnik, and Anna-Maria Arabia, Chief Executive, Australian Academy of Science

9.00 Frances Valintine – Generation 2020 – ready set go?
Founder and Chair of The Mind Lab & Tech Futures Lab in New Zealand

9.45 Anna Reid – The importance of ephemeral and intangible activity
Professor and Dean of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music

10.45 Morning Tea

11.30 Abelardo Pardo and Philip Gough – DESIGN-ing your curriculum workshop
IT Engineering Sydney University

13.00 Jim Cook – The Maker Challenge
Innovation Lead ICT, Sydney University

13.15 Lunch

14.00 Chris Hammang, Weber Liu and Jim Cook – How to... Hands-on introduction to 3D animation and all (some) things VR

15.40 Joseph Narai and Glenn Fraser – The Collision of Art and Science: Comics, Robots and Game Shows. Case studies in VR experience creation

16.00 Networking and play ...with wine and cheese!

18.00 for 18.30 Dinner at Monster Bar, Hotel-Hotel [monsterkitchen.com.au]

BEAN17 is proudly supported by:

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

MONASH
University

Tuesday, 12 December

8.30~ Coffee at the Shine Dome

9.30 Martin Brown, Film producer and educational designer

The Storytelling Animal – The human mind is a narrative-generating machine. 'Reality' is a construct generated by narrative filters we apply to sensory experience. How can we harness this process to help students create meaning?

10.30 Morning Tea

11.00 Zoe Doubleday and Sean Connell – Publishing with objective charisma
University of Adelaide

12.00 Margaret Wegner and Les Kirkup – Does physics belong in the biosciences?
University of Queensland and UTS – Facilitated by Pauline Ross

12.30 Lunch and play / networking

14.00 Tina Hinton and colleagues – Workshop: LECTURE LESSONS
Facilitated by Pauline Ross

15.50 Closing remarks

16.00 End of Forum

BEAN

Biosciences Education
Australia Network

BEAN17 is proudly supported by:

National Committee for Biomedical Sciences

A COMMITTEE OF THE AUSTRALIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

