Game on!

Preparing our biology and biomedical graduates for the future

IMAGE: ISTOCKPHOTO.COM / WILDPXEL

This two-day event is an opportunity to network across the biological and biomedical sciences disciplines

We invite you to join us in sharing

- educational resources and extending collaborations on learning and teaching activities initiated at CUBE and VIBE discipline workshops
- insights from the Quantitative Skills (QS) in Science project featuring two guest speakers from the United States
- network updates, including those on the Australian Biology and Biomedical Threshold Learning Outcomes.

Registration is required for planning purposes
